SONG FOR THINKERS.

BY CHARLES SHAW.

Take the Spade of Perseverance,
Dig the field of progress wide;
Every rotten root of faction,
Hurry out and cast aside;
Every stubborn weed of Error,
Every seed that hurls the soil;
Tares, whose every growth is terror—
Dig them out what'er the toil!

Give the streams of education
Broader channel, bolder force;
Hurl the stones of Persecution
Out, where'er they block its course;
Seek for strength in self-exertion;
Work and still have faith to wait;
Close the crooked gate of fortune;
Make the road to fortune straight!

Men are agents for the Future!
As they work, so ages win;
Either harvest or advancement,
Or the product of their sin!
Follow out true Cultivation,
Widen Education's plan;
From the majesty of Nature
Teach the majesty of Man!

Take the Spade of Perseverance,
Dig the field of Progress wide;
Every bar to true Instruction
Carry out and cast aside!
Feed the Plant whose Fruit is wisdom;
Cleanse from crime the common soil!
So that from the Throes of Heaven,
It may bear the glance of God.

NOTICE.

There seems to be some misapprehension on part of some persons in regard to the announcement, for the benefit of all such, I will make the following statement: The property of MOSBY'S COLUMN.

S. L. MOSBY,

LATE OF THE FIRM OF

NORTON, MOSBY & CO.,

NEW ORLEANS,

BEGS leave to inform his old friends and customers, and the public generally, that he has opened a house in CANTON for the purpose of transacting a WHOLESALE and RETAIL business in

DRY GOODS,

Groceries,

Crockery,

HARDWARE,

TINWARE,

WOODEN and WILLOW-WRE,

BOOTS,

SHOES,

HATS,

COTTON AND WOOL CARDS,

PLANTATION & FAMILY SUPPLIES.

And will be pleased to supply their wants for all articles in his line, with the best attention and at the lowest possible prices.

His arrangements enable him to order any goods not in store, that his friends may desire, which he will be pleased to do for a small commission, through one of the best merchants in the city.

In placing himself before his fellow citizens again, he refers with pleasure to his long and intimate association with them, and being a fellow sufferer in the late trying struggle, he trusts his knowledge of their condition and wants will enable him to render entire satisfaction, and retain their long and valued confidence.

To those of his friends who are indebted to the house of NORTON, MOSBY & Co., he begs leave to say that he is prepared to receive payment, in full or in part, and will gladly receive whatever they may be able to pay. To such as may not be able to pay now, by reason of the vicissitudes of the times, he would say: have no fear of being harassed or annoyed, but if you can not pay old scores now, come forward nevertheless and help him with your patronage and influence, and thus enable him to extend that indulgence which it will be his pleasure to do according to his ability.

He is prepared to buy COTTON for which he will pay the highest market price in CASH, or in HAGGING, ROPE, or any other merchandise that may be desired.
